School Days Matinees - 2019-20 Season

Aesop’s Fables onstage
By Vivian and Larry Snipes

Tuesday, October 1, 2019 · 9:30 & 12

Everyone can use a bit of advice now and then. And everyone loves stories! Just ask the master story-spinner and advice-giver of Ancient Greece, Aesop! (Is-op? E-sop? A-sop? How exactly DO you say his name?) Jump into a world of color and fun as our trio of storytellers use music, dance, and a dose of hilarity to re-enact some of Aesop’s most famous fables. You’ll laugh, clap, and cheer along with these beloved stories that teach us memorable lessons like “Don’t count your chickens before they hatch” and “Slow and steady wins the race.” Recommended for grades Pre K & up

La Ofrenda (The Offering)
Wednesday, October 2, 2019 · 9:30 & 12
By José Casas

“‘You can’t know where you’re goin’ if you don’t know where you been... sabor?’”

History is something Alex doesn’t get. There’s no use trying to teach him about where he comes from because to be honest, he doesn’t care—caring is hard and caring makes him think about losing his parents, which he would rather not do. Try as she might, not even his abuela, a strong willed Chicana named Marta Torres, can help him to understand the beauty and magic of Dia de los Muertos. But with a little thunder and a lot of magic, a fast-talking skeleton might just give Alex the courage and compassion he needs to connect.

Recommended for 4th Grade & up
