Mufaro’s Beautiful Daughters

By Karen Abbott

Based on the book by John Steptoe, Adapted with permission of the Steptoe Estate

Monday, April 11 & Tuesday, April 12, 2022 · 9:30 & 12

“Thank you for gathering, children—now listen well. My name is Chinouyazue, and I have a story for you. My story comes from a long time ago, in a certain place in Africa—yet things there are not so different from today, as you shall soon see.” The king is searching for the most “worthy and beautiful” daughters in the land to select his bride, but in this Zimbabwean tale of generosity, kindness, and selflessness, Mufaro’s daughters Manyara and Nyasha learn that true beauty comes from within.

Recommended for grades K—3

Running time: Approximately 1 hour

Curricular connections: African Folklore, Family, Heritage, Forgiveness
