School Days Matinees - 2023-24 Season

With 929 plush covered seats, our classroom provides professional live performances, acclaimed literature, and educational support for students as well as adults. The Glema Mahr Center for the Arts is committed to presenting quality events designed to expand students' understanding and appreciation of the arts and to enrich the curriculum, making direct connections between the arts and Kentucky Educational Guidelines.

Most performances are 9:30 a.m. and 12 noon, except where noted. Cost is $6 per seat for every performance and as in the past, payment may be made by school purchase order, Visa, Discover, MasterCard, American Express, cash, or check. To assure seats to your selected performances, estimate the number of students and adults attending, complete the order form and email the information to toby.roberts@kctcs.edu, call 270-821-2787, or fax to 270-824-1868.

Wednesday, October 4, 2023 • 9:30 & 12

Adapted by Jeremy Kisling, based on the story by Kenneth Grahame

What happens when the dragon won't fight St. George? In this new retelling of the classic story, when a young child befriends a kindly, poetry-loving dragon who wants to be friends – even though everyone in the village is terrified of the "horrible beast." When the village hires St. George to slay the dragon, it's up to the child to come up with a clever and creative plan to save the dragon and win the hearts of the town.

Recently named a “Southern Cultural Treasure” by South Arts and Ford Foundation, Memphis-based Collage Dance has presented thirteen seasons of emotionally evocative performances to local and international audiences and cultivated a love of dance in thousands of students. Collage Dance’s founders established the professional dance company in New York City in 2006 in response to the ballet industry’s lack of racial diversity on stage. In 2009, after moving to Memphis, Tennessee, Collage opened its dance conservatory to expand access to classical training to communities of color and prepare them for collegial and professional dance appointments. Students attending the lecture/demonstration will learn the history of ballet, witness how a dancer prepares for the stage, and experience excerpts from company repertory.

Recommended for grades 6-12 Running time: Approximately 1 hour

A Hopkins County Schools Joint High School production

Friday, December 1, 2023 • 9 a.m.

Buddy, a young orphan, mistakenly crawls into Santa's bag of gifts and is transported to the North Pole. The would-be elf is raised, unaware that he is actually a human until his enormous size and poor toy-making abilities cause him to face the truth. With Santa's permission, Buddy embarks on a journey to New York City to find his birth father and discover his true identity. Faced with the harsh realities that his father is on the naughty list and his half-brother doesn't even believe in Santa, Buddy is determined to win over his new family and help New York remember the true meaning of Christmas. Recommended for grades 2-12

Running Time: Approximately 2 hours

Produced by special arrangement with Music Theatre International.

Bindlestiff Family Circus

Wednesday, January 24, 2024 • 9:30 a.m.

Bindlestiff Family Circus co-founders Stephanie Monseu and Keith Nelson have traveled the world since 1995, bringing a unique hybrid of vaudeville, circus, and sideshow spectacle to venues of all shapes and sizes. Jugglers, acrobats, contortionists, plate spinning, sword swallowing, brain twisters and other risk-taking feats set to live music combine to create an interactive performance.

At the moment of President Lincoln's death, Secretary of War Edwin Stanton announced, "Now he belongs to the ages." This play celebrates Lincoln's life through his own words and those of people who knew him. While he was one of the most significant and profound individuals in American history, there is so much we do not know about the man himself. What drove him? What inspired him? What fed and supported his remarkable journey? Though we can never fully know the answers to those questions, we "keep" Mr. Lincoln by continuing to explore them.

Recommended for grades 4-12
